

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

MEMBERS

This list has been prepared at A. L. A. headquarters and is, so far as known, correct to December 1. The names of honorary members are printed separately, names of libraries and other institutional members in Gothic type and of life members in capitals.

The number following each name is the registration number in the order of joining.

Abbreviations: asst., assistant; Br., branch; catlgr., cataloger; child., children's; circ., circulation; class., classifier; ed., editor; instr., instructor; L., library; ln., librarian; mgr., manager; ref., reference; sch., school; * died during the year.

(NOTE: Many members of the Association are actively engaged in some branch of war service, to which they are devoting their full time, and for which they have been granted leave of absence by their library authorities. A number of these are organizing or serving as librarians of the camp and cantonment libraries. It has seemed proper, however, in the following list to omit mention of these (let us hope) temporary positions and addresses, and to record only the permanent and regular. Those in active military service "with the Colors" are, however, designated, where known.—EDITOR.)
